"HERE IS MIGHT AND REASSURING PROMISE"

by Roman Gary

The night is ending in mist, the stars are still there, but their blinking remoteness wastes no attention on us. Even if the sky itself were a lens of awesome magnitude, it is not easy to imagine the eye behind it watching the predicament of every human grain of sand on the earth's shore.

Only the faithful sea keeps us company, sharing since the beginning of time all the torment, longing and restlessness of our spirit. The sea has a way of assuming our deepest self with such a triumphant mimicry that it seldom fails to free us from our hidden fears and torturing doubts. No man has ever walked away from the ocean without having been rescued.

Sea of Okhotsk, Sea of Sargasso, Red Sea, Black Sea, Caspian Sea, Seas of Sulu and of Barents, of Arctic and of Antarctic--so many names, so many different worlds, such a diversity of thought and faith. Yet it is only one sea, only one beyond, and all the rivers of the earth must be dreaming of it along their way and sharing our oldest longing, the longing for an estuary.

The first cry of a sea gull rises above the swell, the first call of a seal is heard from the rocks. No peak in the Andes reaches higher into the sky than that tiny mast of a fisherman's bark just out of Monterey. And yet it is only a man-made mast, only the trembling walk of a sail across the horizon, no answer, no clue, only the sea and our old quest. Perhaps the mystery will always be only in the eyes of the beholder.

The wind is rising, the dawn has cleared the sky, the young air is filled with an eagerness that belies the age of the earth. Life is only beginning; no one has ever died. It is our first dawn and indeed there is no beginning, no end, no limit, only the eternal voice of the sea and our unquiet spirit seeking a crossing.

Perhaps the sea is a master illusionist forever performing its deceiving trick to keep us hopeful. But on these sands where the earth ends and the ocean begins, the promise of a beyond is so clearly felt, the infinite seems so close and the emptiness is of such majestic vastness that it becomes a formidable presence. Few of us feel alone on the ocean's shore.

They say there is nothing but water there and that it came from the clouds, eons ago, when the fiery earth was beginning to cool. But to stand here on the beach of Big Sur in the early hours of dawn as the yellow sun still weighs heavily over the swell is to know better. For the materialist lives in a world of his own making, a barren, absurd world where the brief desolate cry of a sea gull never reaches beyond the ear, where the sea has no voice but only makes a sound, where the strangeness and wonder of life echo in vain and then are heard no more, where the haunting enigma never finds an answer.

Listen to the murmur as the tide rises and the ocean comes closer. If the sky seems hollow now that the stars are gone, let heaven hide in emptiness, for we are not alone. There is a might here, a reassuring promise, almost a certitude--and no matter how far we throw away our hope, the sea will always find it and bring it back to us intact.

Science can tell us how the sea was born. It can deal with the salt and with the water, but no amount of salt water can make an ocean without that strangeness which happens when a man sets his eyes upon it.

One day science may explore the infinite and account for each particle of cosmic dust and for each light year of the galaxies; it may reach for the bottom of nothingness and inform us triumphantly that indeed there was nothing there. But it will always be enough to look at the living sea to know better and to smile with relief: the secret will always be there, untouched, unfathomed. The sea surges and recoils, thunders in boundless confidence and then lies low, conquers and retreats, heaves and broods and pounds furiously against its limits--the faithful image of our spirit as it struggles onward between hope and doubt.

The sea belongs to the dreamer. It is beyond the reach of the skeptic. It speaks to us with a voice that no weight of scientific evidence can reduce to a meaningless mechanical tumult; it keeps under our eyes a promise of something that can never die. That is perhaps why it has been put there.

LENNOX HIGH

MR. GEORGE G. KEY

"HERE IS MIGHT AND

There was a new might at Lennox this year that was felt by all. This might was demonstrated in our football team and student enthusiasm. This year Lennox saw the best team ever. School spirit and pride reached an all time high. Mr. Key has been a great inspiration. Some of the ways that he has inspired us have been by riding on the bus with the team and by giving "Pep Talks" to the players, student council, and our school rallies.

Having graduated from Narbonne High School in Lomita, he attended the University of California at Santa Barbara and completed graduate work at Stanford, University of California at Los Angeles, and Long Beach State College.

As a stimulating and dynamic principal and friend, Mr. Key has won the respect and admiration of everyone at Lennox. We of the Troubadour staff dedicate this yearbook to Mr. George G. Key, the man who has completely dedicated himself to making Lennox High School more than a dot on the map, and we certainly feel he has succeeded!

MISS LOLA WYLAM

REASSURING PROMISE

With fifty years of teaching experience behind her, Miss Lola Wylam is truly a dedicated and unique individual. Miss Wylam came from a family of teachers. Her mother and the six sisters taught. Two of the sisters and a niece are still teaching.

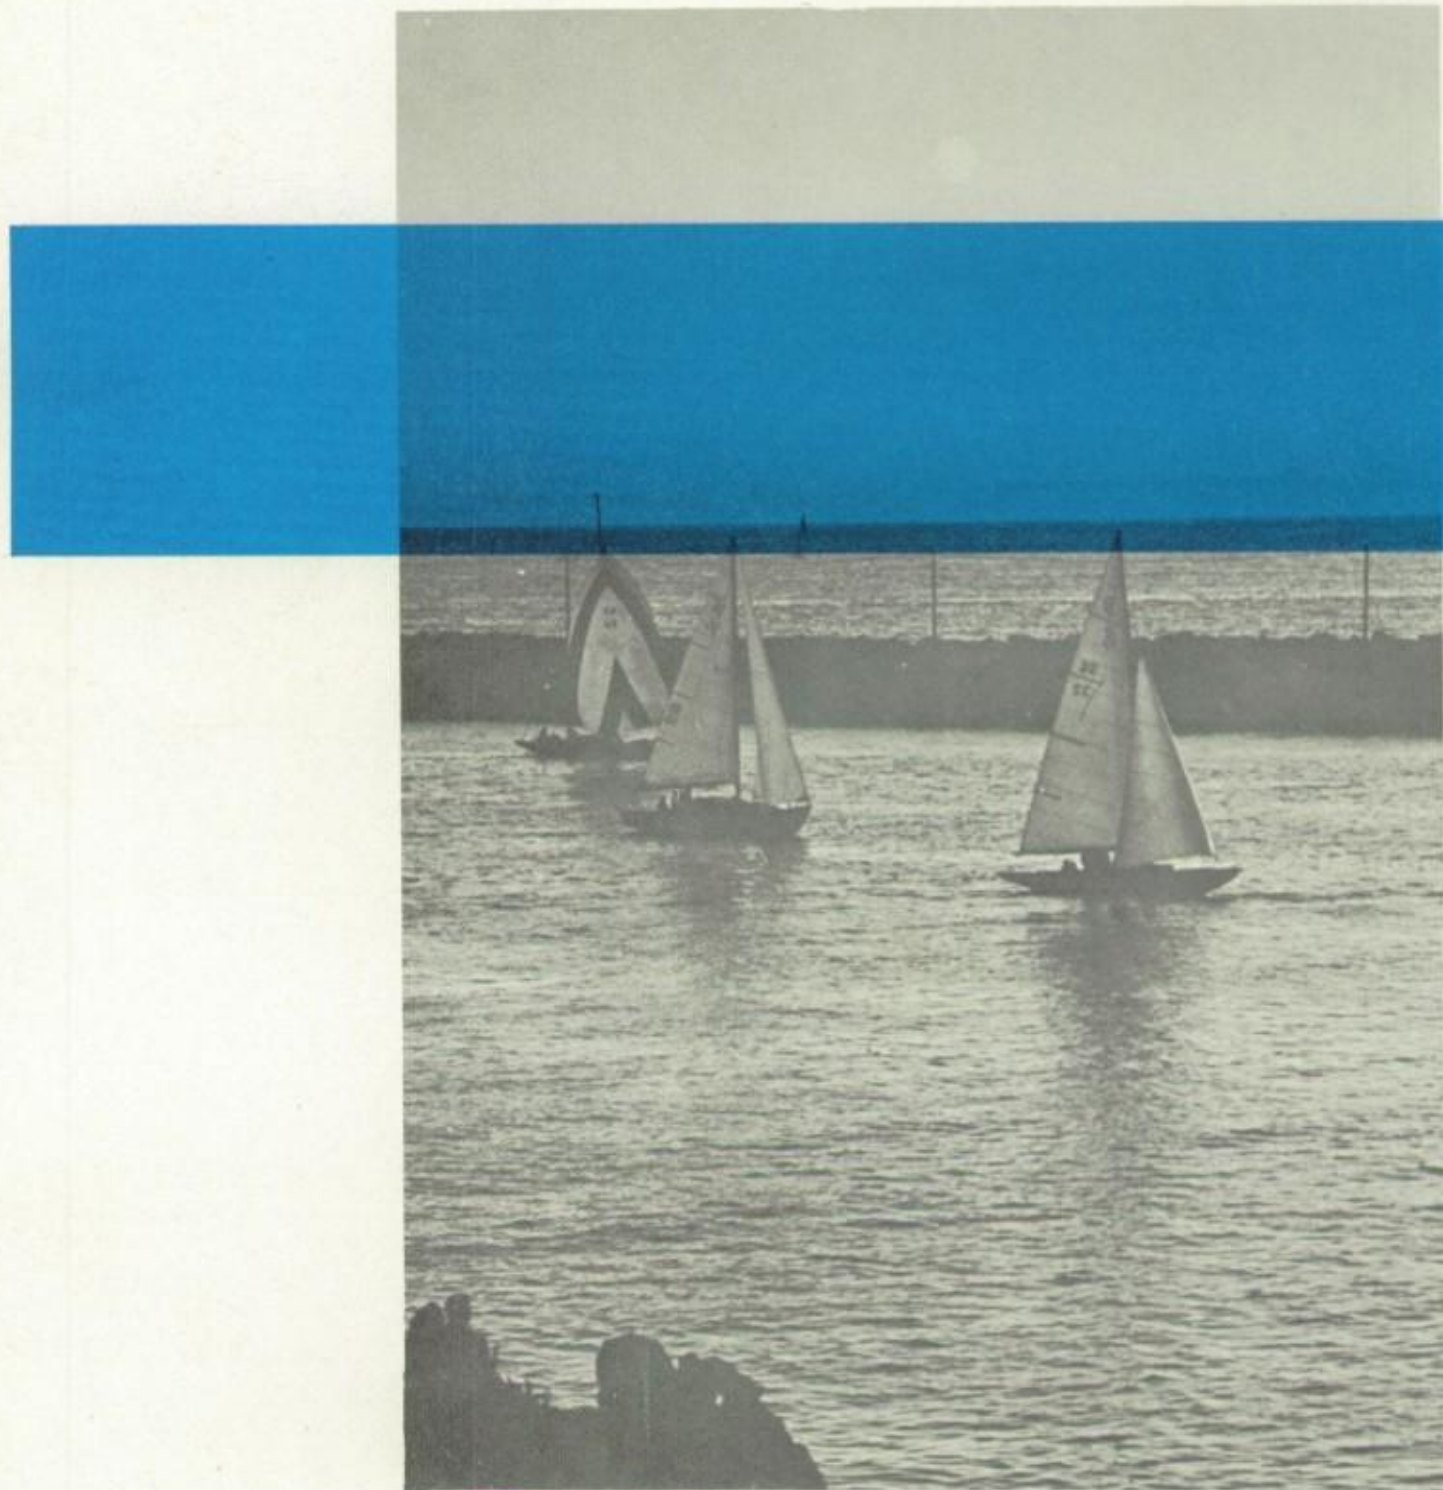

Teaching since 1915, Miss Wylam has also been on several outstanding medical rehabilitation teams. Some of these include the Army Regiment Hospital, Polio Center in Virginia, Los Angeles Orthopedic Hospital, and the Southern California State Cerebral Palsy School.

Since she has been at Lennox, Miss Wylam has been the head of the Physically Handicapped Department. She has gained the respect of her students, and truly is a reassuring promise to all who know and love her.

In all due respect and admiration the Troubadour staff takes great pleasure in dedicating this 1965 edition to you, Miss Wylam, in appreciation for all you have done in your unselfish and outstanding career.

ADMINISTRATION

There is a might here, a reassuring promise, almost a certitude
- - and no matter how far we throw away our hope, the sea will always bring it back to us intact . . ."

ADMIRALS OF A MIGHTY SEA

The promise of 'no more pencils, no more books, no more teacher's piercing looks' is welcome at this time of year as we plan our summer activities. But first take time to evaluate the progress you have made during the past school year, then go about setting new goals for the year ahead. Thus, step by step you approach full realization of the goal of education, to take your place as a responsible adult member of our society.

SENIORS

SENIOR HISTORY

Here displayed before you is a closet full of Senior memories. Cherished and beloved articles that symbolize four very significant years in the lives of the members of the class of '65. From a pink formal to a blue and gold football jersey, dingy gym socks, a battered tennis racket, megaphones - - symbol of school spirit; old tattered Troubadours, and a well worn green and white sweater, all hold a special place in the hearts of every Senior.

The class of 1965 at its inauguration in 1961 went ahead whole heartedly to work with their first task of choosing the first semester officers: John Doherty, President; Ron Rocky, Vice President; and Karla Baker, Secretary-Treasurer. They started building their treasury with a bake sale and noon dances. At their first Homecoming Game, Denise Patriquin was the Freshman Princess. Second semester, Hendrik Baars took over where John had left off. He was supported by Suzie Lentz, Vice President; and Roxie Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer. During their first Sports Week, the boys of the Class of '65 began to show their potential athletic ability and strength by defeating all the other classes in the annual Tug-Of-War.

Under the leadership of Larry Schelhorse, Class President; Ed Connelly, Vice President; and Marilyn Wright, Secretary-Treasurer, the class began a spirited second year. They were well represented on the Pep Squad by Vicki Williams, who also was Sophomore Princess, Vicki Roebuck, Ron Rocky, and Fritz McCartney. Many of the Sophomore girls were proudly marching on the Drill Team that year too! Second semester was a busy one with Ed Connelly as President; Gene Prasse, Vice President; and Violet Bennett, Secretary-Treasurer. The class sponsored a Hawaiian Dance and chose their class rings in the spring.

As the Tritons reached home stretch, their President was Roxie Taylor, assisted by Jean Uelman, Vice President, and John Mortberg, Secretary-Treasurer. That semester they chose their class colors, Yosemite Green and White, and their class name, "Tritons". Sheila Pastors was their Junior Princess and she was also on Pep Squad with Vicki Williams, Song Queen; Diane Fleury, Kary Nemish, and Fritz McCartney. Many of the Triton boys were on Varsity Football and Cross Country, and they were the backbone of the Spring Sports season. Second semester, James Moore took over as President, working with Marilyn Wright, Vice President; and Marsha Lufkin, Secretary-Treasurer. Sports Week was a victorious event for the Tritons. Patti DeSantis was Baseball Princess and Sheila Pastors was Tennis Princess. Do you remember who won the Tug-Of-War that year?

The last year for the mighty Tritons finally arrived. Phil Watanabe was Lancelville's A.S.B. President and Hendrik Baars, A.S.B. Vice President. The Triton's V.I.P.'s were Ed Connelly, President; Carlos Ortiz, Vice President, and Becky Jones, Secretary-Treasurer. Vicki Williams was Grid Queen and riding with her on the float that many a Senior helped construct was Patti DeSantis, Senior Princess, and Polee Polnawee, Honorary Princess. The first semester of their Senior year was the busiest in the Triton's high school career. Their activities included: Sponsoring the annual Christmas Dance which they entitled, "Parisian Christmas", holding a sports night, conducting a See's sucker sale, and being the first class in the history of Lennox, to paint their crest on Senior Square. The new members on the Pep Squad this year were Karla Baker, Sandi Erickson, Patti DeSantis, Denise Patriquin, and Donna Matherly, and our Drill Team was led under the able direction of Linda Leonard, President. The Triton men were the heart and soul of a Varsity Football team that came within one yard of going to C.I.F. The second semester Triton's John Doherty led the Lancer Student Body as their President, and Larry Schelhorse was their Vice President. President Gene Prasse, paved the Triton's way assisted by Sheila Pastors, Vice President; and Linda Leonard, Secretary-Treasurer. During the year, Carlos Ortiz and Jan Frederick represented us as Knight and Lady.

As the door to the closet of Senior Memories slowly closes, they will not soon forget the activities which highlighted Graduation, the last but most vivid pictures of four years of hard work and rewarding moments. Although the door is temporarily closed, many a Senior will reopen it in years to come and remember the friends and times each article in the closet symbolizes.

THE TOP TEN RECIPIENTS

TRITON WISDOM

VALEDICTORIAN

CHRISTINE ANDERSON

LEONA BALIAN

RACHEL HAIM

Lennox High School pays tribute to outstanding achievement in scholarship, which is the primary goal of a high school education. The Valedictorian is that student who has achieved the highest possible scholarship record in his class. The Troubadour staff presents well deserved recognition to the Valedictorian for 1965, Frank Husges.

Frank attended Lennox High School for four years. His major is math and science and his minor is language, German and French.

Frank served as an active member in Pascal's Triangle, was an enthusiastic member of class cabinet, and served a term as President of C.S.F. Frank is also adept at building science models and radios. For recreation, Frank enjoys sports, dancing, going to the beach, and movies.

One of the honors Frank will receive as Valedictorian, will be to give the farewell address at graduation. Once again, we of the Troubadour staff, congratulate Frank Husges on his outstanding four year accomplishment.

FRANK HUSGES

SALUTATORIAN

With pleasure, Lennox High School presents the Salutatorian of 1965, the student who through his high school years has maintained the second highest rating in the Senior class. The Salutatorian gives the welcoming address to the class at graduation exercises. This year, we are proud to acknowledge Tim Ziemann.

Tim has attended Lennox High School for the past two years, bringing with him a fine scholastic record from Gardena High School. His major is math and science and his minor is English. He was also a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship test.

Tim was an active member of the California Scholarship Federation, and was President of Pascal's Triangle.

In his spare time he enjoys reading, playing tennis, and philately.

TIMOTHY ZIEMANN

OF THE INNER CURRENTS OF AND SERVICE

MAN OF THE YEAR

LARRY SCHELHORSE

Man and Woman of the year are chosen by the Troubadour Staff on the basis of a student's consistent excellence in scholarship, responsibility, activities, appearance, initiative, manners and personality throughout their four years at Lennox High School. The staff feels that Larry Schelhorse and Sandi Erickson are best deserving of this recognition.

This year the Troubadour staff is proud to present the Man of the Year award to Larry Schelhorse. Larry has been an active Lancer for four years, and during this time has been a participant in The California Scholarship Federation and is a Seal Bearer in this club, Pep Club, Pascal's Triangle, Letterman's Club, and class cabinet. Larry served as a representative in the House of Representatives, was A.S.B. Vice President, Pep Club President, and was President of Pascal's Triangle. Larry represented us well on Varsity football 3 years, Varsity track 2 years, and one year on Varsity wrestling. Larry's Community service involves being a member of the "Spartans" Hi-Y Club and The Order of the Arrow, an honor scouting association. Larry would like to attend Annapolis after graduation. We, of the Troubadour staff, sincerely wish him the best in the future.

GENE PRASSE

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

SANDRA ERICKSON

This year, we are proud to present Sandi Erickson as the Woman of the Year. Sandi has attended Lennox four years and during this period, she was an active participant in various clubs and student government. Among these are included: being a member of the California Scholarship Federation, Girls' League, Pep Club Pascal's Triangle, and class cabinet. She was Sophomore Class Secretary-Treasurer, represented us on Drill Team for two years, was flower girl at graduation last year, was on the Varsity Song Squad and was the 1965 Spring Sports Queen. She has served Lancerville this past semester as Recording Secretary. Sandi's community service involved: being a member of the "Adorians" Tri-Hi-Y Club, and being an active member of her church. Sandi plans to attend Valparaiso University in Indiana and major in elementary education. Lennox High School and we of the Troubadour Staff are proud of you, Sandi Erickson, Woman of the Year, and congratulate you on your fine high school career and good luck with your future plans!

FROM ACROSS THE SEA

Ampha Polnawee, A.F.S. from Thailand.

"... Sea of Okhotsk, Sea of Sargasso, Red Sea, Black Sea, Caspian Sea, Seas of Sulu and of Barents, of Arctic and of Antarctic - - so many names, so many different worlds, such a diversity of thought and faith. Yet it is only sea, only one beyond, and all the rivers of the earth must be dreaming of it along their way and sharing our oldest longing, the longing for an estuary."

It has been a great pleasure for me to be here with all of you at Lennox High School, although it was only one short year. For me, it was filled with cherished memories. I shall never forget my first day at school, everyone was so friendly, all my anxiety melted away. You made me feel that I truly belonged. I was grateful for the opportunity to share both the gladness of victory and the sadness of defeat with all the Lancers. Now I must return to Thailand, but I shall never forget my friends in America.

"We the student and faculty of Lennox High School in order to promote desirable student activities . . ."

Another year of student government was set in motion with the outstanding leadership of Phil Watanabe and John Doherty. This year's student council has been very successful. Many times the work of upcoming activities of the student body are planned in advance and are often left to the finalized stations for these officers to complete. There were many last minute rushes, but with all these minds working together, we couldn't help but have the best activities Lennox High has ever had.

PEP CLUB

An enthusiastic Club Meeting.

Pep Club Sponsor: Mr. Calder.

Pep-per Up-ers crash Culver with Spirit.

" CLUB OF THE YEAR"

Pep Club was organized to stimulate and promote school spirit, loyalty, and sportsmanship. Its 289 members provide our school with social activities and school services. They sponsored the Tip-Off and Grid Queen dances, gained a profit of $180 from a candy sale, with which they donated to charities week and purchased a fence for the baseball diamond. Selling ribbons and making banners for the athletic events is another of the duties of Pep Club members, who also donated "athlete of the week" awards during football season. "B" football films and ties, for the athletic teams were also purchased by the club.

ART CLUB

"HONORABLE MENTION"

Novices and budding Picassos are all active participants of the Art Club. The organization is designed for the purpose of promoting the Fine Arts program at Lennox. Its 25 members provide decorations and publicity for school activities. (posters, displays, etc.). The activities are many and varied, with the most important being, of course, the Annual Fine Arts Festival. The festival is one of the major events of the year, and all student artists are encouraged to enter their work. The Art Club is one of the busiest clubs in Lancerville, and also has many social activities such as pot luck dinners and mountain snow trips.

THESPIANS

National Thespian Society Troupe 1994 provides our school with many hours of dramatic entertainment. Organized for the promotion of dramatic activities in the community as well as school, this talented group of Thespians gained considerable recognition with their outstanding productions of "The Life and Death of Larry Benson" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner". The Troup attended lectures and productions at various schools and theatres in the South Bay area.

LETTERMANS CLUB

The Letterman's Club was designed for the purpose of giving Lancerville's outstanding athletes the opportunity to share their experiences as a group. Highlighting Spring Sports Week is the Letterman's Annual Pie Throw. For each varsity level sport the club awards a trophy. One important school service the Lettermen provide is ushers for all the assemblies.

Lettermans' Club Meeting.

GIRLS LEAGUE

Every girl at Lennox is a member of Girls' League, but there are only about 50 active members. Membership cards designed by Patti DeSantis were given to active members for the first time this year. Always on the go, the League started the year with their annual Big & Little Sister Tea. School and League officers, and faculty members were introduced to Freshmen at the Tea.

League girls modeled in Fashion shows sponsored by Good Will Industries and Simplicity Patterns. The shows were a great success as girls modeled costumes from the "Roaring Twenties" and spring fashions. The Annual Backwards Dance sponsored by the League was a smashing success this year with the theme being "Sham-rock Delight".

For those with a deep interest in math, Pascal's Triangle offers an opportunity to meet and share your questions and ideas with other future mathematicians. A guest speaker from Northrop spoke to the students, whose activities included a field trip to Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Mathematics films, and sales at basketball games.

Pascal's Club Meeting.

QUILL & SCROLL

Quill and Scroll was organized to foster and develop high standards of high school journalism. During the week proceeding Christmas, the club sponsored a candy cane sale. The members also assisted FBLA with Valentine telegrams. Each year a scholarship is awarded by the club to the graduating senior who has done the most for the school newspaper, the Lance.

FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America are an active young group of students sponsoring social activities, school services, and special services for the school. Their activities included a get together party in September, fastest typing award, and a faculty breakfast that was held in December. In April, most of the girls attended the FBLA State Convention at Disneyland. The Valentine telegram sale, sponsored by the club, was a great success. FBLA's most important service is the scholarship they award to an outstanding business student.

Marching in time to the drum cadence of the Lancer Band, the Drill Team stepped forward again to present another year of unforgettable half time shows. The Lancerettes, under the direction of Miss Rose Strock and led by their President Linda Leonard, performed field maneuvers and presented some humorous half-time shows that amazed the Lancer crowds. Using pom-poms for the first time, the drill team presented a beautiful Homecoming half-time show and two weeks later entered the Hawthorne Band and Drill Team Review and took fourth place, missing the third place trophy by one point. The Troubadour Staff is very proud of the Lancerettes for the fine job they have done at Lennox this year.

CHARITIES WEEK

The big hearted Lancers did it again. This year during our annual Charities Week, we contributed a grand total of $530.00. The weeks' activities were full of the spirit of charity. See suckers were sold all week and the Lancers consumed an estimated 1700 of them. The Penny Pinchers were the most active group of students Lennox has seen in many a day. Sheila Pastors and Frank Pozzuoli pinched the most. Other celebrities of the week were Jim Tabaaz, our illustrious actioneer, and the glamorous ? models who tripped daintily across the stage, and all of those aspiring students who partook in the Talent Show. The money raised was contributed to the Community Chest and the March of Dimes.

THE FORCE OF SIGHT AND THE WRITTEN WORD

From the tide of Creativity flows a wave of beauty, and feeling . . .

Contained in this section are the best of the contest entries. The theme this year was "The Forces of Nature". The grand prize was won by Tom Filmore. The verbal and visual art express the best of emotions and intellect of the individual. Throughout attempting to show some of these feelings expressed there by fellow Lancers.

"FIRE"

*A destructive lumination, which, through an apricot animation,
Intensifies your imagination.
This fever of vivid glitter
Discharges the sparks from its litter, and the flames still continue to jitter.
But if you fail to feed it fuel,
The fever breaks, it's still and cool;
Then dusk accomplishes its rule.*

Tom Filmore, 12th Grade

THE FORCE OF NATURE

As we look at our surroundings in today's modern world, it is difficult not to marvel at our myriad man made achievements. Although every bit of fantiastic creation has been conceived or constructed from two basic, inanimate, intangible things - matter and mathematics; it has taken thousands of years for man to develop these two ever-increasing anigmas.

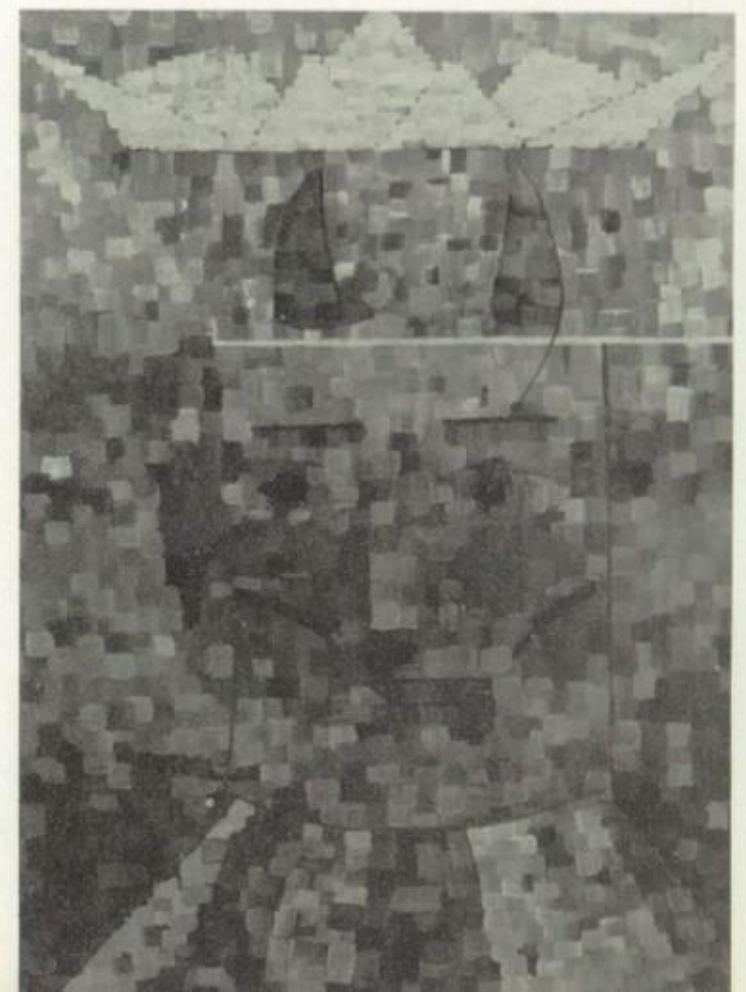

Learned scientists of this day and age know that the forces of nature are created when matter is supplied with sufficient energy. Likewise, early chemists of the sixteenth century, (better known as alchemists), believed matter to be the integral part of the forces of nature. However, based on Aristole's theory, they believed all matter to be composed of four elements - - fire, air, earth, and water. Hence, these four elements were the binding units of power behind the forces of nature.

THE LIFE AND IMMORTALITY OF A WAVE by Dave McDonald, 10th Grade

The untried life of a wave starts somewhere out in the ocean many miles from where it will end. The beginning is always placid. As it procures magnitude and rapidity, it accumulates an enforced movement which no force conceived by man can forestall. As it breaks, it is crowned by a mass of frothy white spray. Next it rushes towards the shore; the wall of water stretching as far as possible up the sandy beach. Then, as if totally unprepared for its abrupt and unexpected release from its debt to nature, it inverts course and surges back into the briny surf to start anew its immortal position in the scheme of life.

TRANQUILITY by Suzie Lentz, 12th Grade

Day is done, where can I go? I am all alone in this big world. But all is not lost. I'll meet my eternal friend tonight. One more hill and I'll be there.

Now all is still and I'm at peace. The stars shine white against the velvet blanket the sky has donned on this night. I am here at last.

A barren beach is all there is with a few pieces of driftwood. But there is something much more for I hear my friend speaking to me as it surges and recoils against the moon-blanching shore. First the pounding, then the grating roar of pebbles which the waves draw back, and fling.

Yes, the sea is my salvation and my hope. It speaks to me in a voice only the dreamer can understand. The sea has a way of assuming my deepest self. It pounds and broods and then lays low. It is dark and angry one minute and can be calm and at peace the next.

The cry of a lone sea gull brings me back to reality. The wind is cold and the mist is rising. The sky has now taken on a new face. The red sun burns away the darkness of the night.

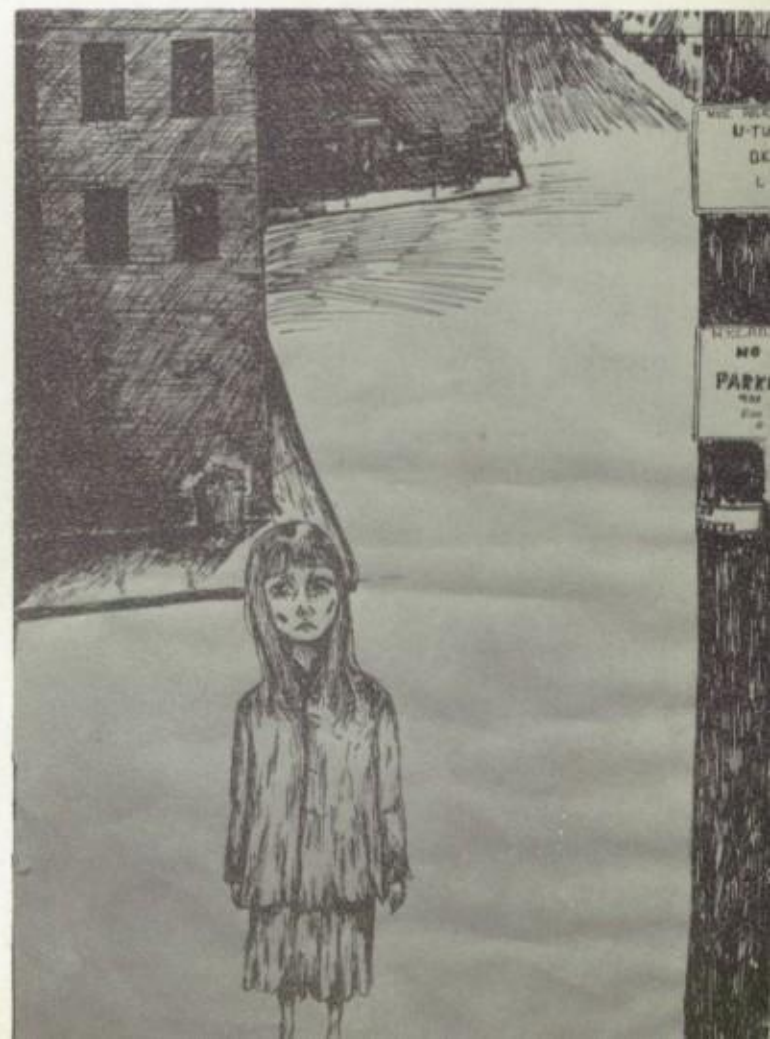

The day has come and I must go. But I envy the shells, the driftwood, sea gulls, and all that belongs to the sea for they may remain. But I will live for tonight. Then I can come back where I belong - - with the sea.

The sea will be here forever and someday, I too, shall join the sea - - forever.

THE SEA - AN EPITOME OF FORCE by Pam Calkins

The sea is an enigma, for it is a combination of all of nature's forces. With this force, it impresses upon the observer a feeling of awed appreciation. The sea at sunset is one of the most pompous sights ever. Far out at sea, a storm rampaging, is becoming more apparent as the brisk air with a bitter taste of salt blows more violently upon your rosy cheeks. Suddenly the storm is upon us and you desperately seek a sanctuary. When you've reached safety, you look from your little cubby hole unto the omnipotent ocean, while it rages a seemingly enchanted battle with unruly wind and scattered rain. Yet, in the morning you are mystified to see a perhaps more wonderful sight. A sea so abstained, so calm, and yet so stately that it portrays its beauty in yet another aspect. These massive seas surround us and impress upon us the awesome vigor endowed in nature.

NATURE AND THE ELEMENTS by Karla White

*God made man to rule the world, their Kingdom, while they live.
He kept aside the elements, as his alone to give.*

*Without the rain and sunshine, no crop would ever grow.
And what a sight, the moon at night, shining on the driven snow.*

*The wind can be an awesome thing, unleashed with all its might,
Or be a gently breeze, that comes to cool the summer night.*

*So nature and the elements, I'm sure that you will find,
Are gifts that God alone bestows, on all of earth's mankind.*

Many students appreciate the Lance. We of the Lance staff appreciate their interest in the paper and find that this interest more than covers the extra work and skill needed to produce the newspaper of Lennox High School.

The LHS Student Council is planning to hold a mock election on October 28 and 29, with debating on the 28th and balloting on the 29th, to compare Lennox High's political opinions with the nation.

Spirit boosting was the main objective for Spring Sports Week. Starting the week off with a few scars and grass stains, the mighty Lancer boys pushed and pulled a huge ball around the field. The Senior class walked away victorious. Tuesday the Fair damsels of Lennox took over with the Girls' Track Meet. That day students were seen walking around campus garbed backwards. Wednesday was the traditional tug-o-war and the Senior class took the title again, this being their third victory within their 4 years at Lennox. Thursday's victors were Linda Leonard and Ed Gould in the 3 legged race, Ken Rocky - hand stand, Sue Lentz - biggest bubble, and Becky Jones was picked for the most original hat, socks and tie. Awards were given out for the week at Friday's rally. Through rain, snow, or shine the Student Council fostered some fine activity for a successful Sports Week.

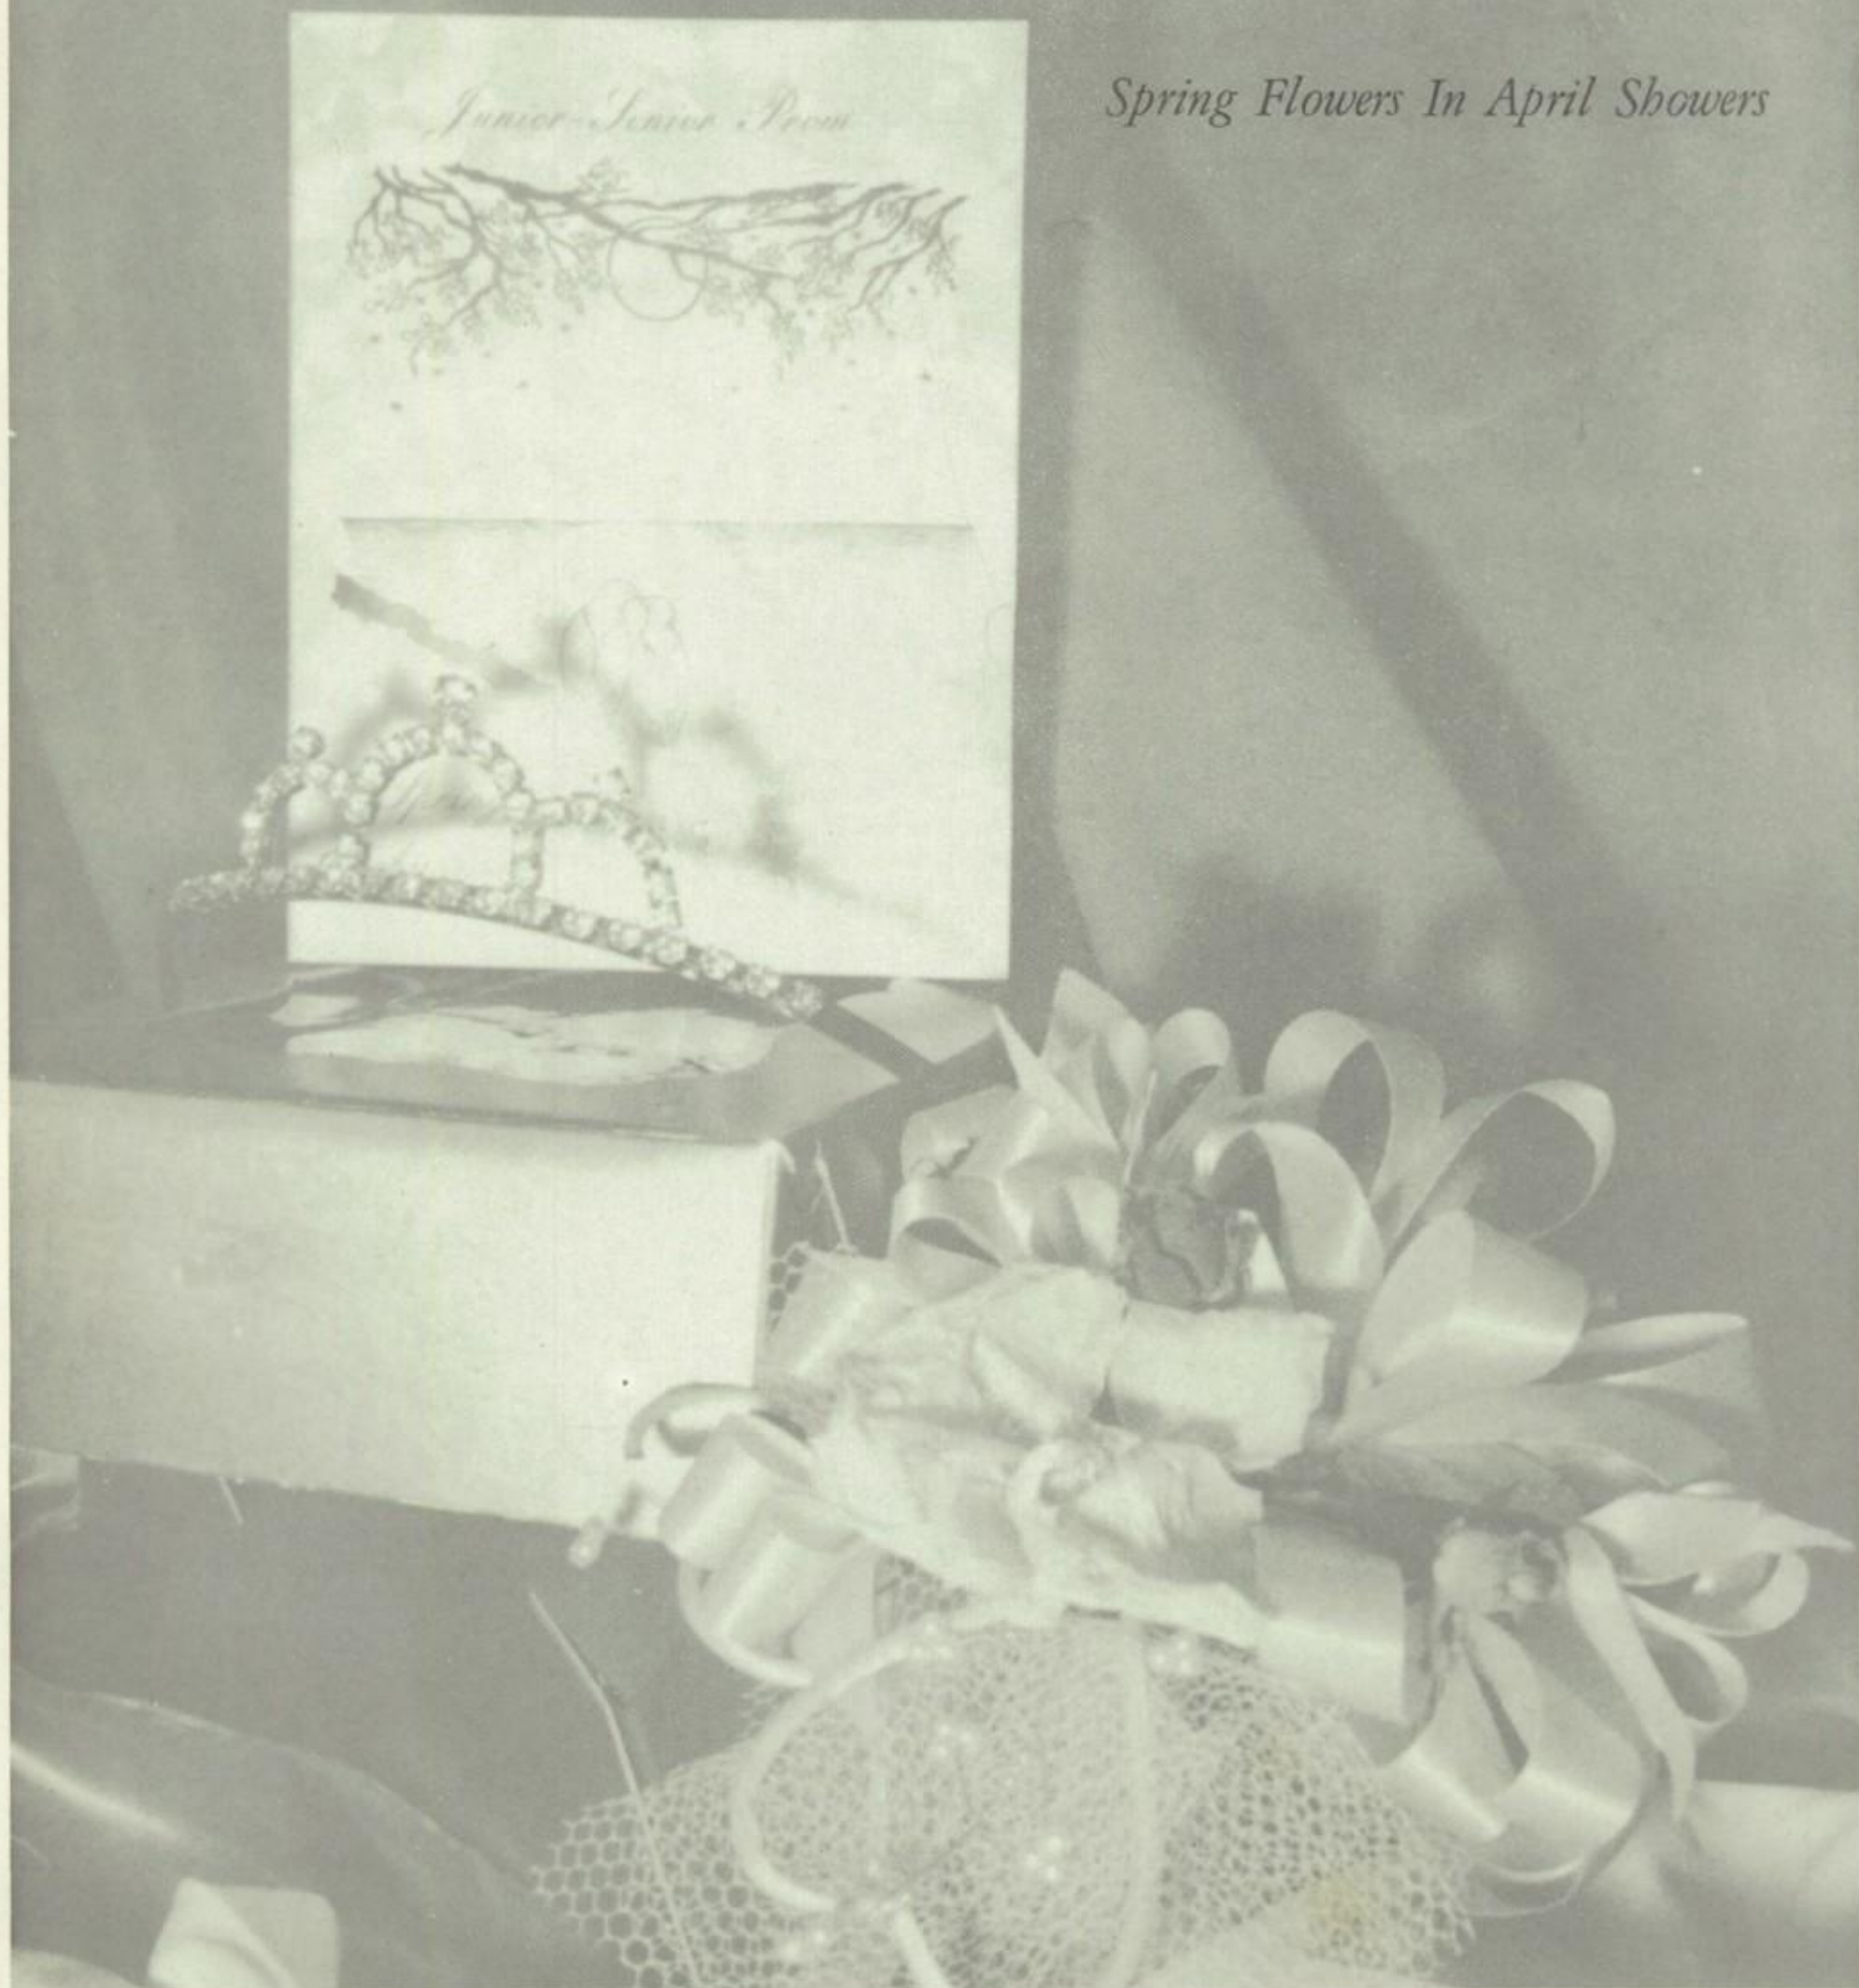

The Seniors are the victors at the annual tug o'war.

Entertainment and (jokes?) were provided by the "Sentimentalists", of which Joe Sinatra, Jim Pearey and Jim Tabasz were members. Although the night was cold, the mood was warm. Everyone, including the teachers present had an enchanting spring (?) evening.

THIS YEAR OUR Varsity Football team finished with a three win, six loss record and had a two win, three loss record in league. This is not too impressive, but let's take a closer look at what happened in those gridiron clashes.

We started our year on a hopeful note, and everyone was working hard that first week of practice in order to be in peak condition by the first game. The double session practice periods were tough and the heat really made it unbearable at times.

Our first game was on Friday September 25. We were game of the week in the Inglewood Daily News. Leuzinger got off to a fine start in the first half and by the time the night was over we knew what it was like to play a game of football and to lose. The score: Leuzinger 25, Lennox 7.

Culver City was next, it was a close game but we lost 14 - 7. Holding the Centaurs to fourteen points was a feat in itself, because Culver went on to play Leuzinger in the final game of the Sky League to decide the Championship.

The Lancers then traveled to Redondo to play the Sea Hawks.

We went into this game as big underdogs and minus a line coach for the first half. That night Mrs. John Smith had a baby and when Coach Smith showed up it was the end of the first half; the score was 7 - 0 our favor. We kept this lead until the last two minutes of the game when Redondo made another touchdown to take the lead 13 - 7. The Lancers then had the ball and tried desperately to make another touchdown, but time ran out. It was a heartbreaking game for we played a better game and lost.

Spirits were still high as we approached the Rolling Hills game. We were looking for a win and everyone had hopes that this Saturday would be the night.

This was the night that everyone had been waiting for. We gained our first victory of the season by defeating the Titans 20 - 6. It was 6 - 6 in the first half and both coaches were thoroughly disgusted with the play of the first half. Coach Young said a few words and off we went to collect our first victory of the season.

Homecoming, and our first league game. This is a game that no one wishes to lose. That night will long be remembered in the minds of many of a Lancer. The queen and the float which she rode was beautiful, and half-time ceremonies were the greatest in the history of Lennox. The football team that night had an easy time as we rolled over West 26 - 7, which gave us our second victory.

Things kept going for the Lancers as we went into our second league game with Aviation. We were down 12 - 6 at the half but after Coach Young's half-time sermon we returned to really roll over the Falcons for the first time in six years, 25 - 12. At When we arrived back at the school that night we learned of the news that Lawndale was defeated by El Segundo and that the winner of next week's game between El Segundo and Lennox would go to CIF.

At this point of the season injuries started to mount up and Coach Young had to cancel the Junior Varsity schedule. But who was to know that the biggest loss was yet to come.

As the spirits of the team and the school steadily rose to an all time high, the El Segundo game became a reality. The visitors side of their field was filled to await the outcome of the game. The all knew that the winner of this game would go to CIF. But something happened that night to end our chances for CIF. It was on the second series of plays when our quarterback came rolling around the end and was hit hard. Everyone knows what happened next. Phil was carried off the field with a broken leg, and with him went our hopes for CIF. Like all sports the game continued under the leadership of Ken Applegate. Just before the half was almost over Ken lead the team across the field down to the Eagles one yard line but was unable to make the touchdown. The score at half-time was 7 - 0 El Segundo's favor. In the second half our runners were taking a beating because of useless piling on by El Segundo's players and countless penalties which weren't called by the refs. Thus the final score was 13 - 7, and Lennox had come within one yard of CIF.

Now the biggest task layed ahead of us. If we were still going to go to CIF, we would have to be at Lawndale. But something went wrong, for in that first twenty-four minute period the roof fell in on us. The score at half-time was 35 - 0. The spirit of the team was low, probably from the defeat by El Segundo, but after Coach Young's half-time sermon we went out and out scored them 13 - 7 in the next half. The final score of the game was 42 - 13.

Torrance was next and was the final game of the year. The spirit of the team was still low for there was no CIF for us to fight for. We ran into a team who was fired up, for they had only won one game previously, and they were out for a second victory. This night we were using Bobby Voyles as quarterback, who did a fine job leading a downhearted team. But it wasn't enough for the spirit of Torrance's team was too high. It just wasn't our night as we were thoroughly beaten 19 - 7. It was a long ride home that night. This year's annual staff would like to congratulate the football team for the superior job that they did and for bringing us closer to CIF than any other team in the history of Lennox.

Bee football had a good year with victories over: Culver City 14-13, Rolling Hills 31-0, El Segundo 14-7, and a 6-6 tie with Leuzinger. Through the fine coaching by Dan Finnegan and Bill Calder, they built a well disciplined team that worked well as a team.

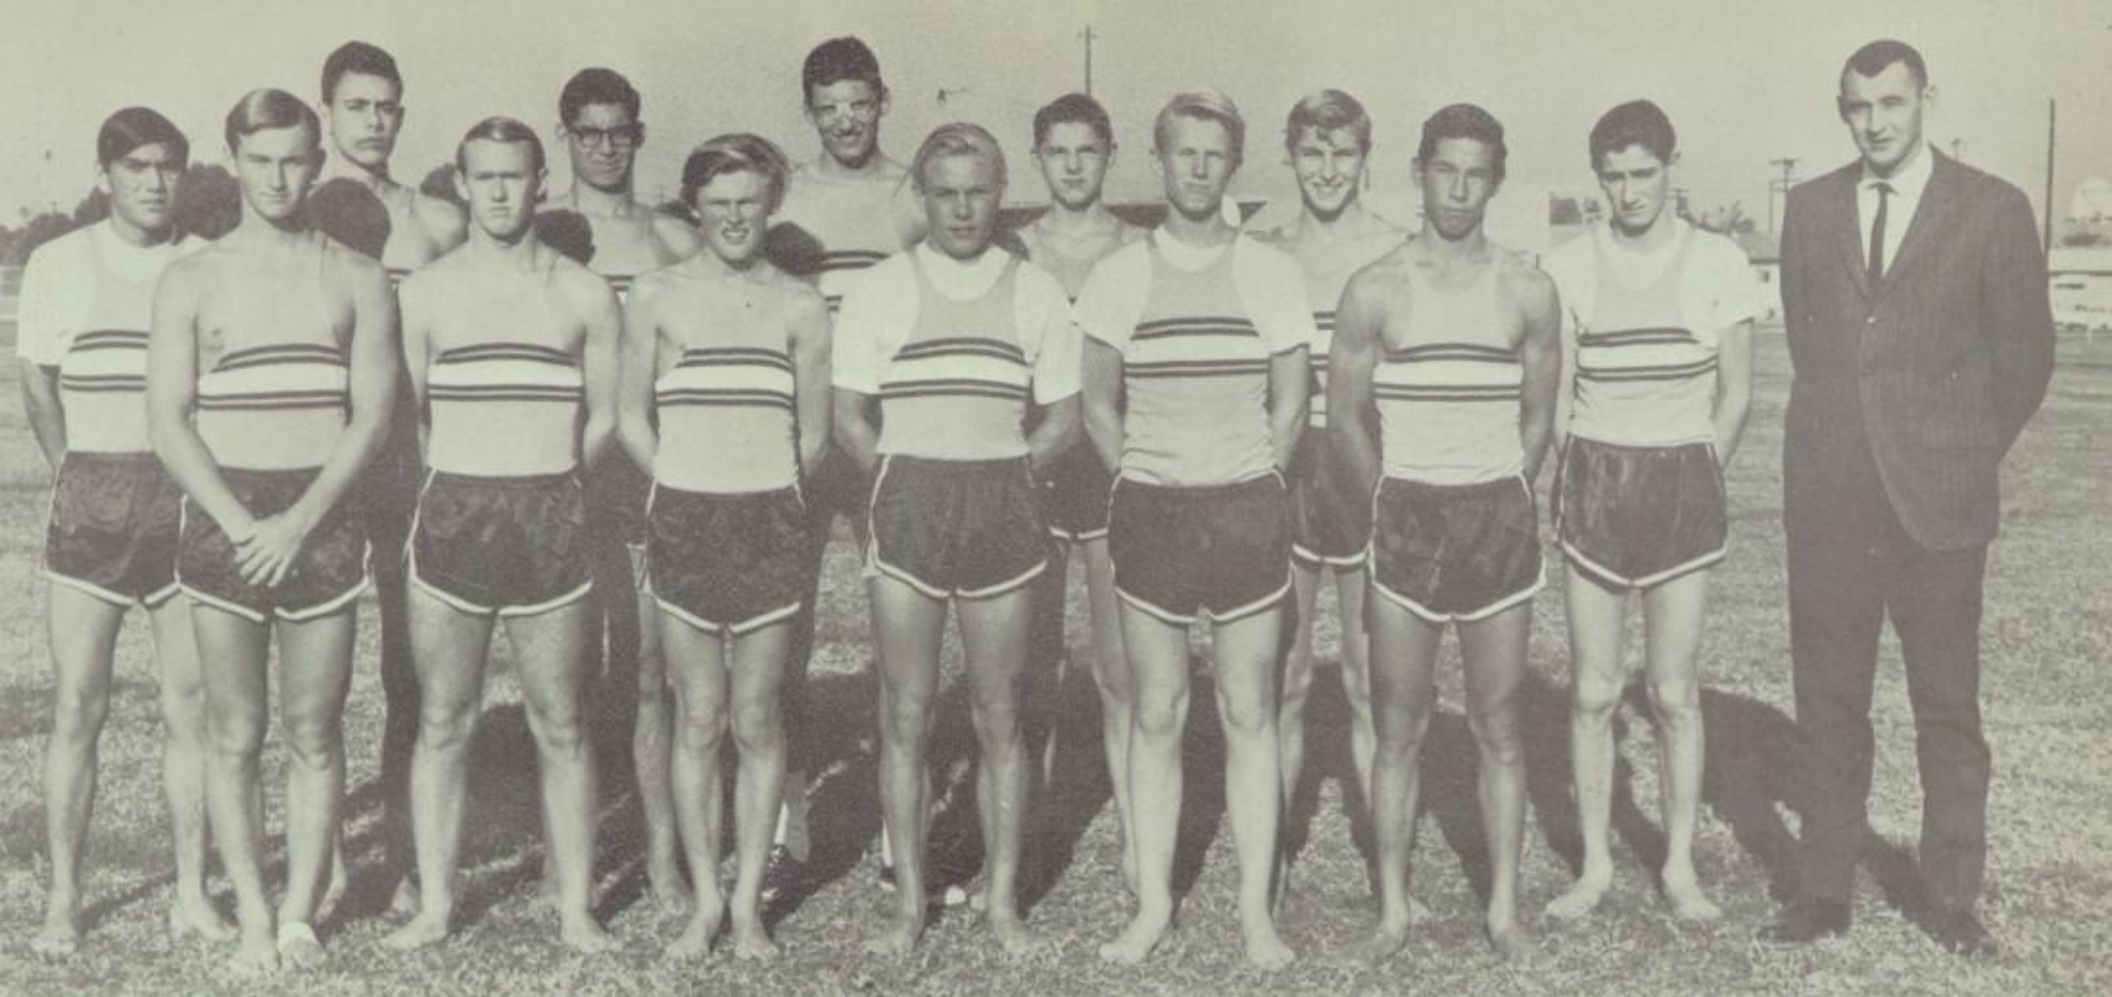

The Cee football team had a good year. This year being coached by Mr. Gerald Smith and Mr. Paul Wicker they showed great improvement as the season progressed in which the final game was the climax of the season. Getting off to a bad start, the Cees soon realized that victory must be earned. But they were deprived of this victory that they so well deserved, until the final game of the year against El Segundo. The Cees earned their victory by defeating El Segundo 13-12.

CROSS COUNTRY

Many hills, curves, and miles make up the course for the Cross Country Team. Over a course of 1.8 miles the Cross Country team runs. Over hills and around many curves they strive for perfection in competition against other schools. In this sport against time and physical endurance, the team must be well trained so that they can achieve this goal, and victory. This year Cross Country finished third behind Aviation and West.

Varsity Basketball Coach

This year's Varsity Basketball Team had a "3 win, 20 lost" record for the season. They rolled up their victories over Rolling Hills 42-34, Chadwick 91-35, and Lutheran 63-43.

The victory over Lutheran was a real feat because in the end Lutheran went on to C.I.F. finals. Rolling Hills was our first game of the season and was also our first victory of the year. The Lancers beat them easily 41-34.

The next big game came in the Hawthorne Tournament against Lawndale. The Lancers led throughout the game until the last minute when the score was tied 52-52. With a half a minute left a foul was called. Lawndale made the free throw, but time ran out before we could score and Lawndale won 53-52.

This year the basketball team set many new school records. The first one to fall was the "most points scored by an individual player in one game". Hendrik Baars scored 33 points against Chadwick to break the old school record of 31. The next record broken occurred in the same game. That was the "highest all around score achieved by a team".

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity squad had the best season of all the other classes of basketball at Lennox. Their victories were against Rolling Hills, Dominguez, Culver City, Inglewood and Lawndale. When the J.V.'s defeated the strong and highly rated Dominguez, they were favored to take league. But things did not work out as expected, for the only league victory was against Lawndale in the final game of the year. With a strong defensive and a good offensive team, Coach Sam Kennedy worked them daily against Varsity to maintain their physical endurance.

Top shooter and captain this year was Bruce Hawkins. He had a 21 point average at the beginning of the year, and finally finished the year with a 15 point average. The Junior Varsity basketball team never failed to play a good game. They were in there fighting all the way in the games that they played.

With a second place in the Centinela Valley Tournament, missing first by three points, and a third place in league finals gave added luster to their record.

The Lennox Wrestling Team was fortunate in having many outstanding wrestlers. Ninety-eight pounder Bob Salempassy was fourth in the Christmas Tournament and then went on to take an outstanding first in league by defeating his opponent 7 - 0. His over-all record is 15 wins and 3 setbacks. Senior Glenn Wrightstone enjoyed his best year as a Lancer, winning 18 while losing 1 and tying once. Larry was first in the Christmas Tournament, first in the high school A.A.U., fourth in the El Camino Tournament and second in league. Dale Stafford at 168 pounds had a fine season this year. In his first full year, Dale compiled a 17 - 7 win-loss record. He was second in the Christmas Tournament, second at the El Camino Tournament and second in league. At 136 pounds Ron Bauer, transfer from Hawthorne added strength to the team by winning fifteen and losing only five. Ron took second in the Christmas Tournament and third in league.

Other wrestlers who did well were John Gutierrez and Joe Forma. This year Forma took fourth in league. With Salampessy, Leair, Stafford and Rorma coming back, the outlook for next year seems good. "Synopsis of Wrestling Season 1964-1965" by Coach Mike House.

"In baseball there is a timeless adage: 'The game is never over until the last out'. In the case of the 1965 Lennox Varsity, this was certainly the case. Displaying a world of determination and athletic courage, the Lancers absolutely refused to quit. Incredible, in the first nine games of the season, Lennox scored in the last inning in seven of those games. Pride in their team and pride in their school made this year's ball club a fine representative for Lennox High."

JUNIOR VARSITY

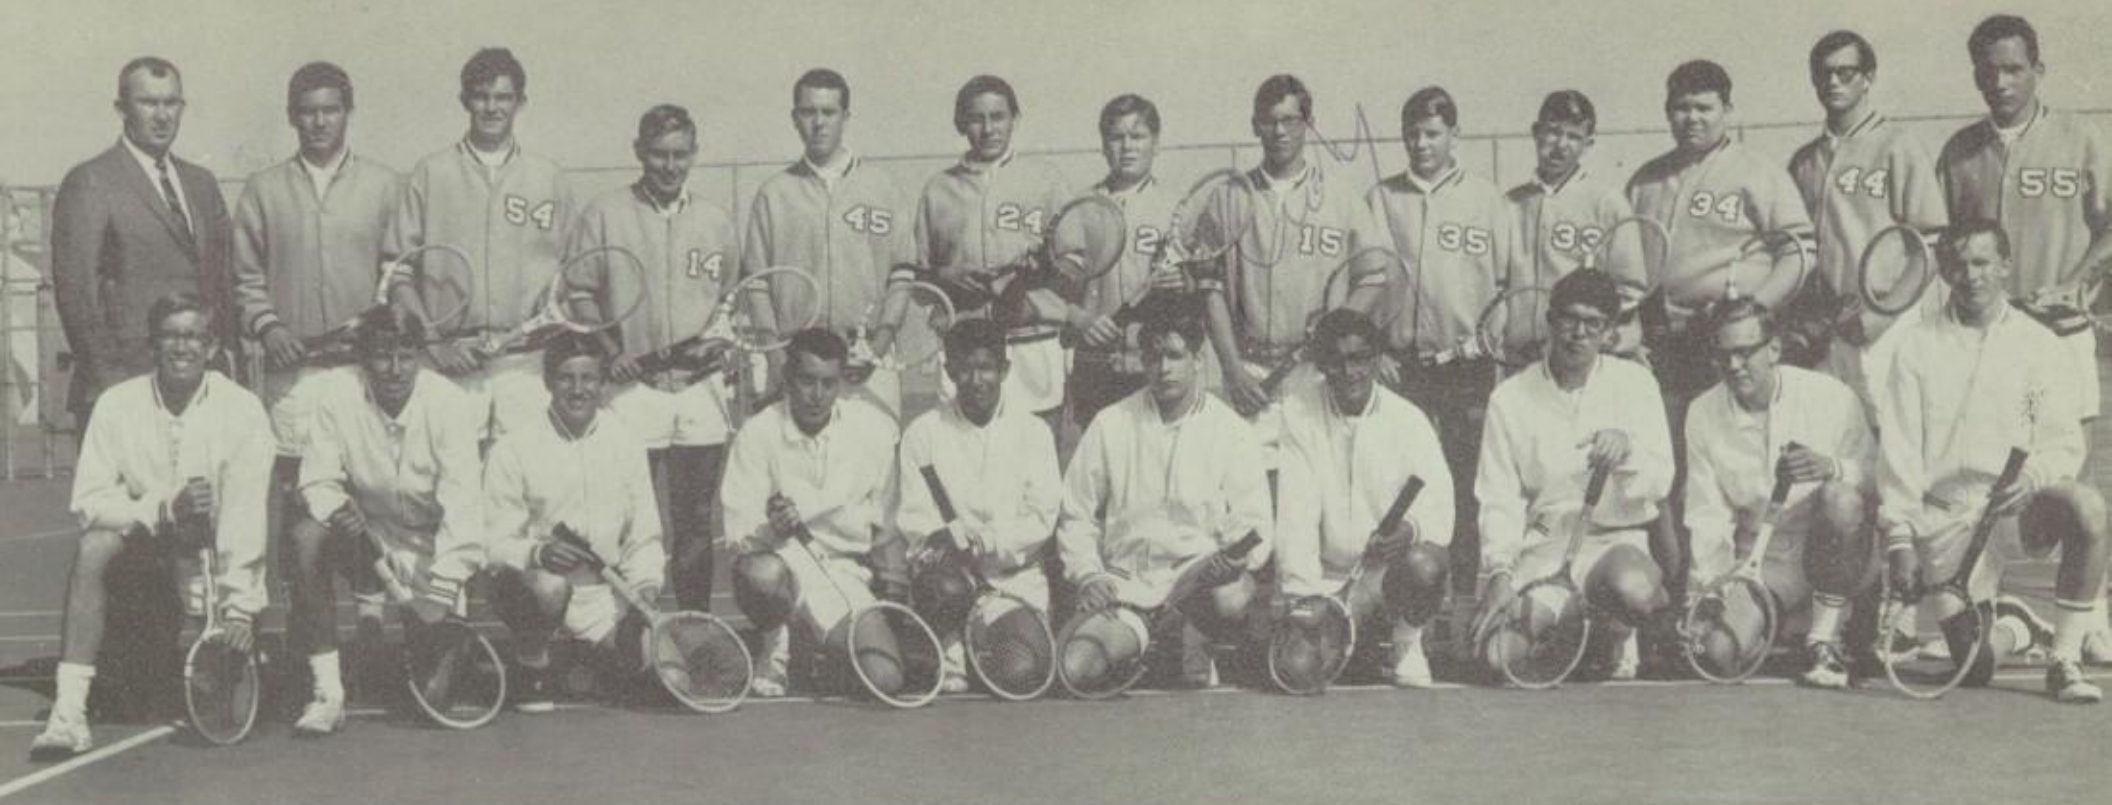

This year's Junior Varsity Baseball team has run into a streak of bad luck. The competition that they have faced has been the toughest ever. The pitching and batting of the opponents has been fantastic, for the J.V.'s have been shut out 3 of 9 games and had two consecutive no-hit games pitched against them. Our J.V.'s are weak in pitching and some of the pitchers double as infielders when they are not pitching. They have played as well as any other team in previous years, but competition in this league has been extremely tough this year, especially the Junior Varsity division.

TENNIS

After three years of preparation, this year's tennis team is the greatest in the history of Lennox. After getting off to a slow start in practice matches, it is starting to show its potential in league matches. Losing by one point in both league matches, they are still determined to come in first place. The biggest upset came against Aviation, who were league champs last year, when we lost by one point. Coach Finnegan and the team feels that they should have beaten Aviation. The team still has their eyes on the championship for there are still eight more games to play.

The Junior Varsity team is having better luck in league. At this point in league play they are tied for first with Torrance with a 2-0 record. First place for this team is slowly becoming a reality.

"Schelly"

In this ancient sport of the Greeks, the elements, time and endurance have not changed through the centuries. In this sport against time the runner must compete against the other runners as well as the clocks.

This year's Varsity Track got off to a slow start because the majority of the other players were still engaged in other sports. When all of the players came out they showed great improvement as the season progressed. This year, Varsity Track is coached by Coaches: John Smith, Charles Armstrong, and Gerald Smith. These three coaches and the team spend many hours of hard work in perfecting the team.

The only victory for track up to this time was against Lawndale 61 - 52. Coach Smith hopes to place good in league finals where it counts.

Jue gets a fine jump against El Segundo.

BEE TRACK

With the Bee and Cee teams being coached by Mr. Armstrong and Mr. G. Smith. Together they have worked to make up two teams from all new personnel. Most of the players out for Bee and Cee track, this is their first year. The Bees lost their first three games but as the season progressed and the experience gained, they won their fourth game. The Cees have an opposite record, their only victory was against El Segundo which was their second game of the year. From these two teams will come tomorrow's Varsity Track, and the outlook for them looks good.

As The Twilight Of The Year Approaches,

The beach is deserted now; the endless turmoil has finally ceased. Surging swells are restored by tumbling ripples that splash gently on white sand. All that is left is a memory, the power has finally exhausted itself; there's a quiet in the air, an undefined serenity. We pause a moment in this sea of life and recall the events of an unforgettable year.

Under the leadership of our new principal, Mr. George Key, we were ready to face the challenge of '65. There seemed to be a new spirit, a burst of enthusiasm at Lennox High School. It was a year of experiments, trying different techniques, and ideas; some were huge successes and others miserable failures. The Letterman's Club purchased a Victory Flag that flew proudly while Lancers hurried to and from classes.

KARLA BAKER
Editor-in-Chief

The Sea Grows Silent Once More . . .

During the National Election for president of the United States, the student council held a mock campaign debate with heated comments pro and con. '65 was the first year in the history of our school that a homecoming float was built. It may not have been the best float ever built, but at least it was a beginning, a root for tradition.

During Spring Sports Week, we all hurried out to the field to see the Push-Ball contest. Most of us never saw anything like it and probably never will again. Almost every boy had a few battle scars to prove his bravery. We were all astounded when Pat Anderson's hair stood on end at the assembly on Atomic Energy.

All these things helped to make up a time of exciting activity in our lives at Lennox. Now the year is gone, and all we have left is our memories, most of them we have captured in the 1965 Troubadour. This book will continue to remind us of a year which is locked fondly in the hearts of many Lancers.

When a year has gone, how will

You ever find it again?

I wonder where it has gone, this

Year that is ended?

Certainly some place far

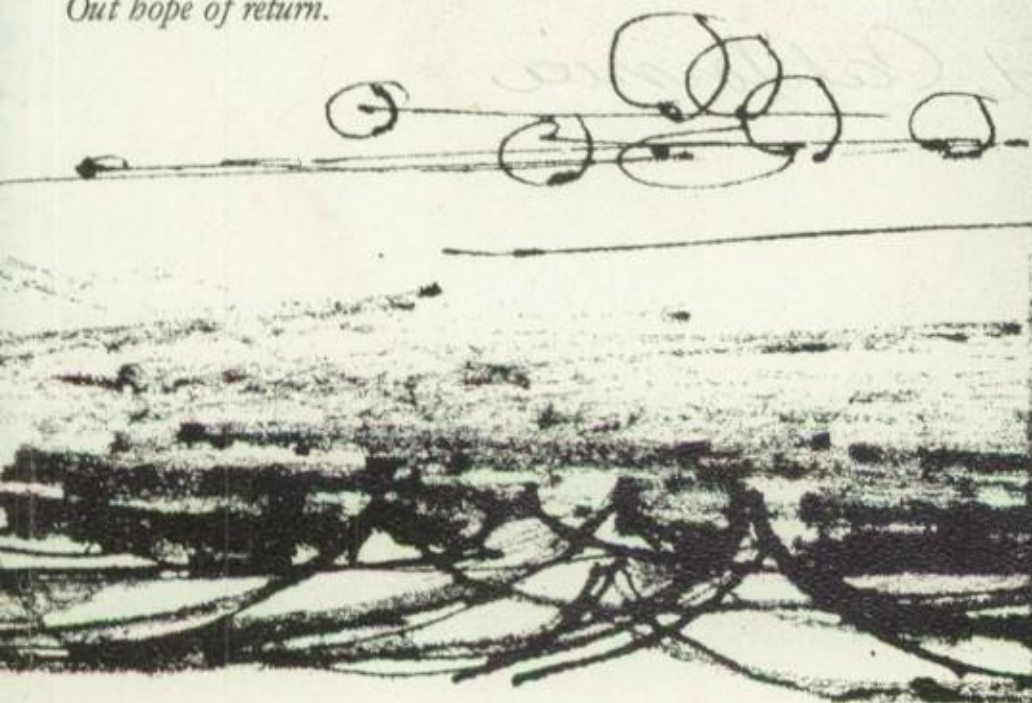

Beyond the horizon.

It has gone like a river which

Flows to the East,

And empties into the sea with-

Out hope of return.

Norma,
Good luck in the future!

To the sweetest Grand Daughter anyone could ever expect to have,
I wish for you the best of luck,
and much happiness always.
You deserve the best so see that you get it.
and always remember I love you.
Grand Mother

Norma - Honey-

It was nice having you as a "California Girl" for a year anyway. I still hope to convert you to being a full-time "California Girl."
We will miss you -
Remember we love you too.

Norma,

I know you are homesick
but you really should stay here.
So many people are going to miss
you. People like Andy, Bear, J.V.
Now don't blow a gasget lots of others will miss you, too. Bill G.,
Jan R., Larry (Schelly), me and lots of ~~people~~. We know you have to see Destry but please come back.
How are Jan and I going to meet any boys. We're going to miss all the adventures we could have had. Now don't you feel sorry for us. You're ruining our lives. You really are mean deserting us like this. Well, don't forget to write. I guess I will resign myself to your leaving. Love,

Pam

P.S. YOU'D BETTER WRITE!!!

Best wishes to a very nice girl. Good luck in the coming year!

Darling Norma,
I have loved you since September,
but you thought of me a fool,
so look on me as an angel
and I'll always be understood.
Good love, hah, and happiness always.

Love ya always,

James
